Dear Heather,

I am excited to send you an e-copy of my brand new book Grace-Based Living. My hope is that you will find some exciting information about how parents can use Grace in their everyday lives. From exploring what Grace means, to applying it in your marriage and raising your children in a positive way, I feel this is a valuable tool for today's families.

Thank you for taking the time to read Grace-Based Living and I would love any feedback that you have. I have also provided a press release to give you an overview on the book.

Blessings,

Crystal Lutton
